

Response to Competitor #6

Dear Damian

I have received the further information you have submitted related to your complaint dated 8 May 2023.

As this submission includes no significant additional grounds for complaint or asks for no additional action to that submitted in your original complaint, I do not consider this to be a new complaint requiring an additional reply.

My reply to your complaint dated 8 May 2023 stands, as do the time limits related to protests.

Regards
