In response to the complaint of competitor no: 11, we, the group of officials present on the site for task 4 witnessed that certain balloons were temporarily lost from sight in the area of the cloud base.

At 12:25, the time of receipt of the complaint, the analytical process was already under way.

It is not the role of a competitor to denounce other pilots, in order to obtain advantage over them.

We consider therefore that this complaint falls under the intended meaning of rule no: 13.1.2
Unsporting behaviour :

" [...] Unsporting behaviour is deemed as conduct by a participant who violates the generally accepted rules of sportsmanship and fair play, [...] "

The repeat of any similar complaint by any participant will result in the application of the rule no: 13.1.2.
